 THE PRESENT COLLECTION is a record of impressions gathered out of doors during summer holidays in France in '89 and '90 and in this Country the present year. They have been painted earnestly and sincerely with a desire to secure interesting effects of light and color as presented in certain phases of Nature. * *

 Sometimes in the rapid changes of effects, the Artist has been obliged to be content with sketches which are but simple suggestions; at other times he has had more favorable opportunity for continued study and has secured results nearer complete and satisfactory.
In all cases he has worked with a definite purpose to interpret as directly and simply as possible, the truths of Nature, not in a literal sense, but solely with reference to color sentiment and artistic impression.
